2. Danner Meadow bench memorial –

Councilmember Moore invited the Brown family to speak. They stated that they live very close to Danner Meadows. Their dad and husband, Mark William Brown, took their kids to the park ever since they were born. He was an avid soccer player, and loved hiking. Mr. Brown passed away last September, and he family wanted to honor his memory by naming a bench after him. They are willing to collect funds if there are any costs involved. Councilmembers Moore and Robison agreed that it was a great idea. Councilmember Robinson added that the will also speak with Councilmember Jenkins, who is the Councilmember for that Ward, to let him know that this request has been brought to the Committee.

3. Renaming the trail at Cato Park –

Councilmember Moore stated that the group that helps to maintain the trails at Cato Park would like to be named Amanda Trail, in their honor. The request was initiate by Mr. Allen in early 2021. The Committee with check with the Administration for next steps.

4. Update of the North Charleston football field –

Councilmember Moore stated that he had recently spoke to the Administration about the update to the field. Now that funds have been secured, the project should be starting soon, possibly in the Spring. The Director of Parks and Recreation, Rashaun Poore, added that the City is currently working with the Land and Water Conservation Fund for funding. It looks like they will be able to match up to $500,000 for the $1.9 million project.

Meeting adjourned.

Our Dad, Mark William Brown, made sure to introduce us at a young age to the wonders of nature.

He made Danner Park a meaningful part of our lives and the lives of our friends and neighbors!
