

Charleston Public Art Commission
Thursday, March 14, 2024
4:00 p.m.
Meeting Minutes

Attendees: Kelley Steele, Kay Goodwin, James Yost, Ditsy Keightley Mallory Burka-Stanley, Pat Bibbee, Jeff Pierson.

Chairwoman Keeley Steele called the meeting to order at 4:05p.m. Kay Goodwin moved approval of minutes of last meeting. James Yost seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Jeff Pierson provided a comprehensive overview off the 2024 Master Working Plan, focusing on works in progress or anticipated to be undertaken this year. In addition to the various engaging projects, efforts to develop policies and process, as well as maintenance and conservation will be made. A request for a part-time position has been included in the 2024 budget. After July, the OPAC location will move to a new location, to be determined.

Jeff will be attending a Public Art Conference in Cincinnati in October. PAC members are encouraged to pay particular attention to public art in their travels.

Brief discussion of the PAC art project followed, with suggestions to pay attention to possible locations for maximum impact.

Mallory Burka-Stanley announced that she will be relocating to North Carolina. She was thanked for her service on the PAC.

Ditsy Keightley moved to adjourn. Mallory Burka-Stanley seconded. Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted,

Elizabeth D. Keightley
Secretary
Public Art Commission
