Ordinance & Rules

Bill No. 8039 Committee Substitute - A BILL to amend and reenact Sections 78-371, 78-372, and 78-373 of the Municipal Code of the City of Charleston, as amended, and to amend said Code by adding thereto a new section, designated Section 78-374, all relating updating, clarifying, and reforming the controlled substances offenses in Municipal Code, to incorporating the state code definitions and schedules of controlled substances, reducing the penalties for simple possession of certain controlled substances and the criminal penalties therefore; making first offense simple possession of marijuana and related substances specified in State code a non-jailable offense; clarifying the conditional discharge statutes for first offense simple possession charges; and expanding the possibilities for discharge of controlled substance possession charges; and updating state law references and other terminology.

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the Council of the City of Charleston:

That Subdivision I of Division 5 of Article V of Chapter 78, specifically, Sections 78-371, 78-372, and 78-373 of the Municipal Code of the City of Charleston, as amended, are hereby amended and reenacted and that a new section, designated Section 78-374, is added thereto, all to read as follows:

DIVISION 5. - DRUGS AND RELATED OFFENSES

Subdivision I. - In General

Sec. 78-371. — Definitions and Schedules Incorporated. ~~Conditional discharge for first offense of simple possession of controlled substances; possession of 15 grams or less of marijuana; expungement of records; subsequent offenses.~~

~~(a) Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of any offense under this chapter subdivision or under any statute of the United States or of any state relating to controlled substances, narcotic drugs, marijuana, or stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic drugs, pleads guilty to or is found guilty under this section, the court, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of the accused, may defer further proceedings and place him or her on probation upon terms and conditions which may include, but is not limited to, participation in a substance abuse treatment program. Upon~~ violation of a term or condition, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions, the court shall discharge the person and dismiss the proceedings against him or her. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without adjudication of guilt and is not a conviction for purposes of this section or for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime. The effect of the dismissal and discharge shall be to restore the person in contemplation of law to the status he or she occupied prior to arrest and trial. No person as to whom a dismissal and discharge have been effected shall be thereafter held to be guilty of perjury, false swearing, or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his or her failure to disclose or acknowledge his or her arrest or trial in response to any inquiry made of him or her for any purpose. There may be only one discharge and dismissal under this section with respect to any person.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, any first offense for possession of marijuana shall be disposed of as described in section (a) above. The definitions set forth in Article I of the West Virginia Controlled Substances Act at West Virginia Code § 60A-1-101, et seq., and the schedules of controlled substances set forth in Article II of the West Virginia Controlled Substances Act at West Virginia Code § 60A-2-201, et seq., including as they may be amended from time to time, are hereby fully incorporated and made a part of this Chapter by reference.

(c) After a period of not less than six months which shall begin to run immediately upon the expiration of a term of probation imposed upon any person under this chapter, the person may apply to the court for an order to expunge from all official records all recordations recordation of his or her arrest, trial, and conviction, pursuant to this section. If the court determines after a hearing that the person during the period of his or her probation and during the period of time prior to his or her application to the court under this section has not been guilty of any serious or repeated violation of the conditions of his or her probation, it shall order the expungement.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision of this Code to the contrary, any person prosecuted pursuant to the provisions of this article whose case is disposed of pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be liable for any court costs assessable against a person convicted of a violation of this section. Payment of such costs may be made a condition of probation.

(e) Any person convicted of a second or subsequent offense under this section may be fined up to $500.00 and/or sentenced to 30 days in jail. For purposes of this section an offense is considered a second or subsequent offense if, prior to his conviction of the offense, the offender has at any time been convicted under this Code or under any state statute or statute of the United States or of any state relating to narcotic drugs, marijuana, depressant, stimulant or hallucinogenic drugs.

Sec. 78-372. - Purporting to sell controlled substances.

(a) No person shall at any time sell any substance which that person purports to be a controlled substance, as defined under schedules I through V of article II of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act (W. Va. Code § 60A-2-201 et seq.) when in actuality the substance sold contains no controlled substances.

(b) Whoever violates the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than $100.00 or be imprisoned for a period not to exceed 30 days, or both. Subsequent violations upon conviction shall be punishable by a mandatory $100.00 fine and, in the discretion of the court, imprisonment not to exceed 30 days.

Sec. 78-373. - ~~Illegal Simple~~ possession of marijuana, synthetic cannabinoids, and other controlled substances; simple possession of marijuana.

~~(a) Simple Possession of Controlled Substances Prohibited. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to possess a controlled substance, specifically a drug, substance or immediate precursor in schedules I through V as set forth in W. Va. Code §§ 60A-2-204, 60A-2-206, 60A-2-208, 60A-2-210 and 60A-2-212 (W. Va. Code § 60A-2-204, et seq.), unless the substance was obtained directly from or pursuant to, a valid prescription or order of a practitioner while acting in the course of his professional practice, or except as otherwise authorized by this Code or West Virginia law. Any Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section for simple possession of synthetic cannabinoids, 3,4-methylenedioxypyrovalerone (MDPV), 4-methylmethcathinone (mephedrone), or less than 15 grams of marijuana, any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined up to $500.00 and/or sentenced to 30 days in jail; however, notwithstanding any other provision of this division to the contrary, any first offense for possession of 15 grams or less of marihuana shall be disposed of under section 78-371(e).~~

~~(b) Conditional discharge for first offense of possession.~~

~~(1) Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of any offense under this Code or under any state statute or statute of the United States relating to narcotic drugs, marihuana, or stimulants, depressant or hallucinogenic drugs pleads guilty to or is found guilty of possession of a controlled substance under this section, the court, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of the accused, may defer further proceedings and place such persons on probation upon terms and conditions. Upon violation of a term or condition, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions, the court shall discharge the person and dismiss the proceedings against him. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without adjudication of guilt and is not a conviction for purpose of this section or for purpose of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime, including the additional penalties imposed for second or subsequent convictions. The effect of such dismissal and discharge shall be to restore such person in contemplation of law to the status he occupied prior to such arrest and trial. No person as to whom such dismissal and discharge have been effected shall be thereafter held to be guilty of perjury, false swearing or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his~~ failure to disclose or acknowledge such arrest or trial in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose. There may be only one discharge and dismissal under this section with respect to any person.

(2) After a period of not less than six months which shall begin to run immediately upon the expiration of a term of probation imposed upon any person under this division, such person may apply to the court for an order to expunge from all official records all recordings of his arrest, trial and conviction pursuant to this section.

(b)(a) Simple Possession of Synthetic Cannabinoids, MDPV, Mephedrone, and Less Than 15 Grams of Marijuana Prohibited. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to possess synthetic cannabinoids, 3,4-methylenedioxypyrovalerone (MDPV), 4-methylmethcathinone (mephedrone), or less than 15 grams of marijuana, unless the substance was obtained directly from, or pursuant to, a valid prescription or order of a practitioner while acting in the course of his or her professional practice, or except as otherwise authorized by West Virginia law. Any person who violates this section subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon a conviction: (1) for a first offense, may be fined not more than ~~$100.00~~$0.00; or (2) for a second offense, may be fined not more than $250.00, or (3) for a third or subsequent offense, may be fined not more than $500.00, imprisoned not more than 30 days in the regional jail, or both fined and imprisoned. Further, notwithstanding any other provision of this code to the contrary, whenever a person has not previously been convicted within the previous one year of any offense under this subsection-subdivision or under any statute of the United States or of any state for relating to controlled substances, narcotic drugs, marijuana, or stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic drugssimple possession of synthetic cannabinoids, MDPV, mephedrone, or less than 15 grams of marijuana, such initial conviction shall be disposed of under section 78-371(a)78-374.

(b) Simple Possession of Synthetic Cannabinoids, MDPV, and Mephedrone Prohibited. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to possess synthetic cannabinoids, 3,4-methylenedioxypyrovalerone (MDPV) or 4-methylmethcathinone (mephedrone), unless the substance was obtained directly from, or pursuant to, a valid prescription or order of a practitioner while acting in the course of his or her professional practice, or except as otherwise authorized by West Virginia law. Any person who violates this subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon a conviction: (1) for a first offense, may be fined not more than $100.00; or (2) for a second offense or subsequent offense, may be fined not more than $500.00, imprisoned not more than 30 days in the regional jail, or both fined and imprisoned. Further, notwithstanding any other provision of this code to the contrary, whenever a person has not previously been convicted of any offense under this subdivision or under any statute of the United States or of any state relating to controlled substances, narcotic drugs, marijuana, or stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic drugs, such initial conviction shall be disposed of under section 78-374.

(c) Simple Possession of Controlled Substances Prohibited. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to possess any other controlled substance not specified in subsection (a) or (b) of this section, unless the substance was obtained directly from or pursuant to, a valid prescription or order of a practitioner while acting in the course of his professional practice, or except as otherwise authorized by this Code or West Virginia law. Ordinance & Rules

Bill No. 8039 Committee Substitute - A BILL to amend and reenact Sections 78-371, 78-372, and 78-373 of the Municipal Code of the City of Charleston, as amended, and to amend said Code by adding thereto a new section, designated Section 78-374, all relating updating, clarifying, and reforming the controlled substances offenses in Municipal Code, incorporating the state code definitions and schedules of controlled substances, reducing the penalties for simple possession of certain controlled substances; making simple possession of marijuana a non-jailable offense; clarifying the conditional discharge statutes for simple possession charges; and expanding the possibilities for discharge of controlled substance possession charges.

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the Council of the City of Charleston:

That Subdivision I of Division 5 of Article V of Chapter 78, specifically, Sections 78-371, 78-372, and 78-373 of the Municipal Code of the City of Charleston, as amended, are hereby amended and reenacted and that a new section, designated Section 78-374, is added thereto, all to read as follows:

DIVISION 5. - DRUGS AND RELATED OFFENSES

Subdivision I. - In General

Sec. 78-371. – Definitions and Schedules Incorporated.

The definitions set forth in Article I of the West Virginia Controlled Substances Act at West Virginia Code § §60A-1-101, et seq., and the schedules of controlled substances set forth in Article II of the West Virginia Controlled Substances Act at West Virginia Code § 60A-2-201, et seq., including as they may be amended from time to time, are hereby fully incorporated and made a part of this Chapter by reference.

Sec. 78-372. - Purporting to sell controlled substances.

(a) No person shall at any time sell any substance which that person purports to be a controlled substance when in actuality the substance sold contains no controlled substances.

(b) Whoever violates the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than $100.00 or be imprisoned for a period not to exceed 30 days, or both. Subsequent violations upon conviction shall be punishable by a mandatory $100.00 fine and, in the discretion of the court, imprisonment not to exceed 30 days.

Sec. 78-373. - Simple possession of marijuana, synthetic cannabinoids, and other controlled substances.

(a) Simple Possession of Less Than 15 Grams of Marijuana Prohibited. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to possess less than 15 grams of marijuana, unless the substance was obtained directly from, or pursuant to, a valid prescription or order of a practitioner while acting in the course of his or her professional practice, or except as otherwise authorized by West Virginia law. Any person who violates this subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon a conviction: (1) for a first offense, may be fined not more than $0.00; or (2) for a second offense, may be fined not more than $250.00, or (3) for a third or subsequent offense, may be fined not more than $500.00. Further, notwithstanding any other provision of this code to the contrary, whenever a person has not been convicted within the previous one year of any offense under this subdivision or under any statute of the United States or of any state relating to controlled substances, narcotic drugs, marijuana, or stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic drugs, such conviction shall be disposed of under section 78-374.

(b) Simple Possession of Synthetic Cannabinoids, MDPV, and Mephedrone Prohibited. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to possess synthetic cannabinoids, 3,4-methylenedioxypyrovalerone (MDPV) or 4-methylmethcathinone (mephedrone), unless the substance was obtained directly from, or pursuant to, a valid prescription or order of a practitioner while acting in the course of his or her professional practice, or except as otherwise authorized by West Virginia law. Any person who violates this subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon a conviction: (1) for a first offense, may be fined not more than $100.00; or (2) for a second or subsequent offense, may be fined not more than $500.00, imprisoned not more than 30 days in the regional jail, or both fined and imprisoned. Further, notwithstanding any other provision of this code to the contrary, whenever a person has not previously been convicted of any offense under this subdivision or under any statute of the United States or of any state relating to controlled substances, narcotic drugs, marijuana, or stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic drugs, such initial conviction shall be disposed of under section 78-374.

(c) Simple Possession of Controlled Substances Prohibited. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to possess any other controlled substance not specified in subsection (a) or (b) of this section, unless the substance was obtained directly from or pursuant to, a valid prescription or order of a practitioner while acting in the course of his professional practice, or except as otherwise authorized by this Code or West Virginia law. Any person who violates this subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined up to $500.00 or confined up to 30 days in jail, or both fined and confined.

Sec. 78-374. – Conditional discharge for simple possession of controlled substances; expungement of records.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Code, whenever any person who has not been convicted of any offense under this subdivision or under any statute of the United States or of any state relating to controlled substances, narcotic drugs, marijuana, or stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic drugs, pleads guilty to or is found guilty under section 78-373, the court, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of the accused, may defer further proceedings and place him or her on probation upon terms and conditions which may include, but is not limited to, participation in a substance abuse treatment program. Upon violation of a term or condition, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions, the court shall discharge the person and dismiss the proceedings against him or her. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without adjudication of guilt and is not a conviction for purposes of this section or for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime. The effect of the dismissal and discharge shall be to restore the person in contemplation of law to the status he or she occupied prior to arrest and trial. No person as to whom a dismissal and discharge have been effected shall be thereafter held to be guilty of perjury, false swearing, or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his or her failure to disclose or acknowledge his or her arrest or trial in response to any inquiry made of him or her for any purpose. There may be only one discharge and dismissal under this section with respect to any person: Provided, That this limitation does not apply to anyone charged under Section 78-373(a) for possession of marijuana.

(b) After a period of not less than six months which shall begin to run immediately upon the expiration of a term of probation imposed upon any person pursuant to this section, the person may apply to the court for an order to expunge from all official records all recordation of his or her arrest, trial, and conviction. If the court determines after a hearing that the person during the period of his or her probation and during the period of time prior to his or her application to the court under this section has not been guilty of any serious or repeated violation of the conditions of his or her probation, it shall order the expungement.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this Code to the contrary, any person prosecuted pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision whose case is disposed of pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be liable for any court costs assessable against a person convicted of a violation of this subdivision. Payment of such costs may be made a condition of probation.

Bill No. 8044 - A Bill closing, abandoning and discontinuing as a public right of way, a 10-foot wide by 250 foot, long public right located between Randolph and Virginia Streets, Charleston, WV 25302 in Block 20, J. B. Walker Addition, situate in Charleston West District, Kanawha County, West Virginia.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA

1. The 10 foot wide by 250 long pubic right located between Randolph and Virginia Streets, Charleston, WV 25302 in Block 20, J. B. Walker Addition, situate in Charleston West District, Kanawha County, West Virginia, as shown on that certain map or plat entitled "PLAT OF SURVEY FOR MEMBERS CHOICE WV FEDERAL CREDIT UNION BEING PARCEL "A" 10' ALLEY TO BE ABANDONED BY THE CITY OF CHARLESTON, BLOCK 20, J.B. WALKER, CHARLESTON WEST CORPORATION, KANAWHA COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA" prepared by Wilkinson Surveying, LLC, Philip L. Longenecker, PLS#1026, dated March 7, 2024, and attached hereto as Exhibit A. The alley is more particularly described as follows:

BEGINNING at a corner to a 10' alley and southwesterly r/w line of Randolph Street corner to John Nicoloudakis; thence, crossing the alley and with the southwesterly r/w line of Randolph Street, S. 31° 56' E. 10.00' to a mag. Nail set corner to Members Choice WV Federal Credit Union; thence, leaving Randolph Street with the Members Choice line, S. 58° 04' W. 250.00' to a point in the northeasterly r/w line of Virginia Street West corner to Members Choice; thence crossing the alley and with the northeasterly r/w line of Virginia Street West, N. 31° 56' W. 10.00' to a point corner to Members Choice; thence, leaving the northeasterly r/w line of Virginia Street West and with the Members Choice line, N. 58° 04' E. 250.00 to the point of beginning, containing 0.06 acres, more or less;

2. The Mayor of the City of Charleston be, and is hereby authorized and direct to execute, acknowledge and deliver a proper deed conveying to the Members Choice WV Federal Credit Union, all right, title and interest in and to said real property as described in Section 1 above, for the consideration of Thirteen Thousand Dollars and no cents ($13,000).

3. All prior ordinances, or parts of ordinances, inconsistent with this ordinance are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

CONCLUSION

The identified comparable sales have been qualitatively compared to the bank property that adjoins the alley, considering sale attributes and physical differences. Any indication of a comparable property's superiority or inferiority to the adjacent property is utilized to rank or bracket its market value in relative comparison.

The sales shown in the comparison grids on the prior pages are of similar properties in similar/competing marketing areas (unless noted and adjusted for a difference in demographics). The indicated value range is basically from a low of $2.93/unit to a high of $8.03/unit, with a weighted average, average and median around $4.77-5.19/unit.

Emphasis is often placed on those sales with the lowest gross adjustments, tempered by those closest in proximity and most recent in date of sale tempered with the remaining sales. As a result, a point value around the weighted average, median and the average for sales of similar unit counts and construction dates at $5/unit is felt to appropriately reflect the market value of the subject property. Following is a summary of the sales approach:

Sales Comparison Approach Summary
Value per unit/sf
Indicated Value (rounded)	$13,000
Value per unit	$5.00 / unit
Source: J. R. Thornton

This develops the as-is market value via the sales comparison technique as of the date of valuation.
